Why cringe? All proceeds will help Jewish Family & Child provide vulnerable children and teens with the opportunity to enjoy extracurricular activities that they would not otherwise be able to afford.

We cannot take credit for the entire content of this email. Please note that we have borrowed the lyrics from the 2002 classic, "Without Me". Thank you, Eminem. Cringe.

CRINGE WORTHY 2.0

Heartbreak. Hair perms. Fashion catastrophes. Scoring a goal in your own net. Having your note read out loud in class. We've all been there. Now it's time to relive those moments and laugh at them. Join the young professionals from JF&CS' Emerging Leaders on April 6, 2016 for Cringe Worthy 2.0 - the second annual hilarious trip down memory lane with performers sharing their most embarrassing stories, live on stage.

Emerging Leaders was established in February 2014 by a group of young professionals in their 20s and 30s. The members of this dynamic group have varying professions and backgrounds but all share a passion for making a difference in the community through the work of Jewish Family & Child.

GRIEF IS A PROCESS, NOT AN EVENT.

Bereaved Jewish Families of Ontario, in partnership with Jewish Family & Child and Beth Sholom Synagogue invite you to a special evening: Grief is a Process, Not an Event: It Doesn't Keep a Schedule. Guest Speaker, Corrie Sirota, M.S.W., P.S.W. Grief, Loss and Bereavement Specialist and Author of Someone Died...Now What?

SALUTING OUR AMAZING VOLUNTEERS

National Volunteer Week will take place from April 10-16, 2016 and JF&CS would like to extend its deepest and most sincere appreciation to all of our exceptional and dedicated volunteers.

At Jewish Family & Child, volunteering comes in many forms from big brothers and sisters to our Board of Directors. From chaplaincy volunteers to event committees like the wonderful women who make Jewish Folks Telling Jokes a reality. From the young adults who make up our Emerging Leaders to Jeremy and Jo-anne Cole, our 2015 Annual Campaign Chairs. We thank you all, and quite simply, we could not run this organization at the high level we do without you!

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer with JF&CS, please click here to see a menu of opportunities.

HAPPY PURIM!

Purim is just around the corner on March 24th. Why not make you friends and loved ones smile by sending them a Purim tribute card or e-card to show you care!

It's simple and secure. Just click here: <https://donation.jfandcs.com/purim>
